2022 E Howard-Davies GP14 Youth Training Week Information and Application Form

Monday 11th April – Saturday 16th April 2022 at The Andrew Simpson Foundation Centre, Osprey Quay, Portland. DT5 1SA

The E Howard-Davies GP14 Youth Training Week is an advanced race training course run over five days for helms and crews able to demonstrate racing competency and a desire to compete at GP14 Championships. Sailors must also be under 22 on 31 Dec 2022, or still in full time education.

The cost of the week is £270. This cost principally covers your food and accommodation for the week, as the coaching is heavily subsidised by the E Howard-Davies Memorial Fund. We can take a maximum of twelve boats, so have twenty four places available. We need a minimum of twelve sailors for the week to be viable. It is preferable if you can enter as a team of 2, helm/ crew but not mandatory

The following guidelines will be used to select participants from the applications received:

1. Participation in recent GP14 events - as helm or crew – particularly Championships and major events such as National or World Championships.
2. Participation in GP14 or club training events.
3. Ability to:
 - a. sail at a good club racing standard in a range of wind conditions, including planing conditions.
 - b. to right a capsized boat
 - c. to handle a GP14 ashore
4. A letter of support from your club Commodore, Training Principal or other recognised person who can confirm your ability and commitment to the GP14.
5. Access to a GP14 in good racing order.

Please use the form overleaf to apply for a place and send it to Julie in the GP14 Office. Applications should be received by January 30th 2022 to be sure of consideration in the initial selection process. The final decision on who is invited to participate is at the absolute discretion of the Association.

Upon acceptance you will be required pay a deposit of £50. The balance of £220 and medical/consent forms will need to be received by during March. Sailors are required to be Youth members of the Association.

This event is being organised by the International GP14 Class Association for its youth members and is not designed to award any specific sailing or racing qualifications. The coaching will be provided on the GP14 Association's behalf by the Andrew Simpson Centre who will provide a Senior Instructor for the week. We will additionally use Guest coaches for specific GP14 skills.

Sailors will be housed a short walk away at Portland House, a facility built specifically for the sailors in 2012 Olympics. There will be a volunteer house parents system for the under 18s when they are not under supervision of the Head Coach.

Sailors will be expected to arrive on Monday 11th April to rig their boats before the evening meal. Sailing will start on Tuesday morning. They should be ready to leave at 1700 on Saturday 16th April.
